(a) Penalty for unpaid taxes. As a means of enforcing the collection of any room tax imposed by this ordinance, the municipality may exchange audit and other information with the Department of Revenue and may do any of the following:

- (1) If the Town has probable cause to believe that the correct amount of room tax has not been reported or that the tax return is not correct, the Treasurer may inspect and audit the financial records of any person(s) pertaining to the furnishing of accommodations.
- (2) Any person(s) furnishing accommodations who fails to comply with a request to inspect and audit their financial records shall be subject to a forfeiture, not to exceed 5% of the accommodations tax to be imposed for the period being audited.
- (3) If a person(s) required to file a return fails, neglects or refuses to do so, the Treasurer shall determine the tax according to their best judgment, in the manner as described in this ordinance.
- (4) The penalty for the late payment of taxes that the town determines to be due shall be 1% per month on the unpaid balance commencing as of the date such tax was due and payable. No refund or modification of the payment determined may be granted until the person files a correct room tax return and permits the town to inspect and audit his or her financial records.
- (5) Any person(s) furnishing accommodations who fails to pay the tax for a period of one calendar year shall be subject to forfeitures, not to exceed 25% of the room tax due or $5,000, whichever is less.

If the person fails to respond by written notification to the Treasurer within ten (10) days as to why the penalty shall not be assessed, the Treasurer shall make an estimate of the amount of the gross receipts under this section. Such estimate shall be made for the period for which such person failed to file a return, based upon the prior year's returns if available; upon any quarterly returns as have been filed with the Treasurer; or upon any such information as the Treasurer may obtain concerning the business. On the basis of this estimate, the Treasurer shall compute and determine the amount of tax due the Town, adding to the sum thus arrived at a failure-to-file penalty equal to twelve percent (12%) of the tax due, exclusive of other penalties or interest charges.

(d) False or fraudulent return penalty. Any person who files a false or fraudulent return with the intent in either case to defeat or evade the tax imposed by this article shall be assessed a fraudulent filing penalty of fifty percent (50%) of any additional tax due, exclusive of interest and other penalties.
